

“The State of Children: Politics and Policies of Childhood in Global Perspective”

June 23–25 2011

Teachers College, Columbia University
W. 120th St. between Broadway and Amsterdam

Session Venues

ZB 125: Milbank Chapel, 125 Zankel

GDH 177: Grace Dodge Hall 177

GDH 179: Grace Dodge Hall 179

GDH 277: Grace Dodge Hall 277

GDH 285: Grace Dodge Hall 285

GDH 449: Grace Dodge Hall 539

Book Exhibition: ZB 109: Trustee’s Room, 109 Zankel

Conference program

June 23-25

June 23 DAY 1

12:00-01:30

Session 1

GDH 285

Children, Media and Educational Practices

Katharina Bullard

Tracking the “Street Arab”: Colonialism, Childhood and Citizenship

Meredith Bak

2011-06-01

Democracy and Discipline: Object lessons and the stereotype in American education 1870-1920

Luke Springman

A Three-Year Old Conquers Africa: Colonial Propaganda in German Children’s Media during the Weimar republic (1918-1933)

Chair: Mathilda Hallberg

Session 2

GDH 177

Children, School and Health

Richard Alan Meckel

No Free Lunch: The Progressive Era Response to the “Underfed School Child”

Alexandra Minna Stern

Shuttered School, Disease Surveillance, and Absenteeism:

Responses to 1918-1918 Influenza Pandemic in the United States

Heather Munro Prescott

From Reproductive to Productive Human Beings

Chair: Janet Golden

Session 3

GDH 179

Children Deprived: Psychology, Maternal Care and Child Welfare in the Post-World War II Era

Michal Shapira

Child Psychoanalysts on the Radio: Maternal Deprivation and the Postwar British Media

Sara Fieldston

Parents Across the Sea: Fictive Families and the Rehabilitation of Children in Postwar Europe

Ellen Boucher

Maternal Deprivation and the Imperial Politics of Belonging: British Child Emigration to Australia, 1940-1967

Mical Raz

Maternal or Cultural Deprivation? Race, Poverty and Deprivation in Johnson's "Great Society"

Chair: Kathleen W. Jones

Session 4

GDH 277

A Transnational Age: The Experiences and Mobilities of Cosmopolitan Circulations

Mingwei Song

The Travels of the Old Youth: The Origins of the Young China in a Global Context, 1872-1919

David M. Pomfret

"Cloudlands": Youth, Mobility and Imperial Networks

Richard Ivan Jobs

Cultural Internationalism and Hostelling in Postwar Europe

Chair: Brian D. Bunk

Session 5

ZB 125: Milbank Chapel

"The Disappearance of Childhood" Revisited: Roundtable on the Postman thesis'

ROUNDTABLE: James E. Block, Dan Cook, Harvey J. Graff, Margaret King, and Michael Zuckerman

June 23

02:00-03:30

Session 6

GDH 539

Transdisciplinarity, Theories, Concepts and Methods - II

Judy Castillo

Platforms for Public Discourse: A Fresh Look at Moral Panics

Mirian Jorge Warde

Molding Girls and Boys in 20th Century Brazil

Ana Vergara

The Cultural Politics of Childhood in Chilean Post-authoritarian Democracy

Jonah Steinberg

Runaway Train: Railway Children and Normative Spatialities in Postcolonial India

Chair: Jonas Qvarsebo

Session 7

GDH 177

Child Care and Education between Tradition, State, and Market

Kaspar Burger

A Comparative-historical Study into the Developments of Early Childhood Care and Education Institutions in France and the United States

He Ling, Wu Luping and Cong Zhongxiao

Chinese Child Care Policy Reform since 1949

Anne Li Lindgren

Definition of a Good Childhood in an Institutional Context: Swedish Educational Programs about Play in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s

Annika Pissin

Educational Violence in China: A Process of Civilization?

Ann Kirson Swersky

“And thou shalt teach them ...” (Deuteronomy 6:7) The Centrality of Education in Jewish Tradition

Chair: Michael Grossberg

Session 8

GDH 179

Crossing Boundaries: The Intellectual Opportunities and Logistical Challenges of Exploring the Histories of Children

Kelly Schrum and Miriam Forman-Brunell

International and Interdisciplinary: Children and Youth in History

Susan A. Miller

Can Interdisciplinarity Actually Be a Discipline?

James Marten

Here There Be Monsters: Practical Lessons Learned and Questions Raised by editing Berg's A Cultural History of Childhood and Family

Chair: Paula S. Fass

Session 9

GDH 277

Normalizing the Behavior of Adolescent Youth in South Africa and the United States, 1880-1940

Sarah E. Duff

“Simple, worthless, idle” children: Work, Idleness, and Impoverished Urban Childhood in Late Nineteenth-Century Cape Town, 1870-1900

Tera Eva Agyepong

The “Most Vicious and Depraved”: The Construction of African American Girlhood at the Illinois State Industrial School for Girls and their Exclusion from the Rehabilitative Ideal, 1986-1935

Leroy M. Rowe

Sex, Race and Poverty: Child Welfare and Delinquency Reform at the State Industrial Home for Negro Girls at Tipton, Missouri, 1916-1940

Chair/Discussant: Wilma King

Session 10

GDH 285

A Transnational Age: The Challenges of Transnational Identities

Brian D. Bunk

Youth and Transnational Spanish-Speaking Identities in the 1920s

Matthew Pratt Guterl

The Child Named Marianne: National Symbolism, Transnational Adoption, and the Multi-racial Family in Josephine Baker's Dordogne

Adriana Brodsky

Sephardim in Argentina and Argentines in Israel: Zionist Youth Groups, Emigration, and the Politics of Belonging and Being, 1960-1976

Chair: Andres Ivaska

Discussant: Leslie Paris

Session 11

GDH 449

The Sick Child: Hospitals, Public Health, and the Expert

Mary Clare Martin

Children, Hospitals and Social Engineering, 1850-1950: Making Citizens or Excluding the Unwanted?

Jeanie Wood

When Being Good meant Getting Better

Kari Ludvigsen and Teemu Ryymin

Minority child health between expertise and policy. Norway 1970-2010

Sue Hawkins

Sickness is No Respector of Borders: Victorian Children in Hospital in London and Glasgow

Chair: John Stewart

June 23

04:00-05:30

Session 12

GDH 177

Spaces of children and youth

Mariano Narodowski

Urban Poverty, Music Consumption and New Childhood and Adolescent Identities in Argentina

Elif Ege

Coping with the City: The Tactics of the Kurdish Adolescent Girls in Istanbul

Jui Wan Lin

US. Childhood in Presentation of Child Labour in the Progressive Era: Public Media and Hearings of Commission on Industrial Relations

Anne Millar and Jeffrey Keshen

Secondary Schools at War: A Comparative Study of Toronto and Montreal during the World Wars

Chair: Karin Zetterqvist Nelson

Session 13

GDH 179

Childhood and Welfare in the Nordic Countries: Nordic and transnational perspectives

Ólöf Garðarsdóttir

The Demography and the Politics of Nordic Childhoods during the 20th Century

Pirjo Markkola

Child Welfare and Nordic Knowledge and Policy Transfers

Ingrid Söderlind

Children's Place in Nordic Welfare Policies

Astri Andersen

Nordic Child Welfare and International Influences

Chair: Astri Andersen

Session 14

ZB 125: Milbank Chapel

Children, Adolescents, and the Soviet Authorities: Through the Lens of the Cold War, the Stalinist Terror, Institutional Conflicts, and Leisure Time

Elaine McKinnon

Stalinist Terror and its "Collateral Damage": The Children Left Behind and Their Place in Soviet Society

Margaret Peacock

The Image of the Soviet Cold War Child

Ann Livschiz

Bringing up the Soviet Child in the 1920s: Institutional Conflicts Official Voices, and Children's Agency

Gleb Tsipursky

Making Healthy and Fit Soviet Adolescents: Houses of Rest, Tourism, and Sports during the Early Cold War, 1945-53

Chair/Discussant: Catriona Kelly

Session 15

GDH 277

Diaries As Research Tool in Developmental Psychology: Learning From the Historical Contributions of William Stern (1871-1938) and Clara Stern (1877-1945)

Rachel Barr

The Geschwister-Effekt: How Siblings Shape Infant Play and Media Usage

James T. Lamiell

On William Stern's (1871-1938) Coming of Age: Probing a Middle-Aged Psychologist's Analysis of His Own Adolescent Diary

Michelle D. Leichtman

William Stern on Children's Memory and Deception: A Contemporary Perspective

Meike Watzlawik

"How I experienced the divorce of my parents": Describing Adolescents' Individual Perspectives by Combining Qualitative and Quantitative Data

Chair: James Lamiell

Session 16

GDH 285

Empire, Pedagogy, and Colonial Childhoods Late 18th C – mid 20th C

Helen May

European Enlightenment, Exploration and Education: Global Ideals of Civilizing Childhood

Larry Prochner

"A system designed by God": The infant school system and Methodist mission schools in Canada, 1820s and 1830s

Hugh Morrison

Citizens of which realm? Children, Religion, Identity and Allegiance in New Zealand and Canada, c. 1890-1940

Kerry Bethell

Childhood on Display: Kindergarten Models and Social Agendas at New Zealand International Exhibitions, 1889, 1925-26, 1940

Chair: Larry Prochner

Session 17

GDH 449

Children, Leisure, and Capitalism in the Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century

Marjorie E. Wood

'Freedom from Toil': Children, Toys, and the Moral Boundaries of the Market in the 1910s

Andrew P. Haley

Tiny Diners: Restaurants and the Invention of the Child Consumer in the early Twentieth Century

Braden Hutchinson

"A Relic of Inestimable Worth": Naturalizing Toys in Nineteenth Century Canada

Sofie Lachapelle

Amusing Science: French Children at Play with Science, 1830-1914

Chair: Marjorie E. Wood

Discussant: Gary Cross

Session 18

GDH 539

Children, youth – bodies and normality

Mathilda Hallberg

Visualizing children's Bodies in the Welfare State

Jenifer Muirhead

Cries of Children: Politics, Children and Welfare in Early Twentieth Century South Africa

Stacey Patton

"If Dat Child Doan Soon Change Colour There'll Be Trouble in Dis Family!!" – Skin Color, Negro Babies and the Jim Crow of White Supremacy, 1896-1920

Chair: Bengt Sandin

June 23

5:45-8:00

Opening Address

5:45 p.m.

ZB 125: Milbank Chapel

Judith Warner

"The Construction of the Medicated Child"

Reception

6:45 – 8 p.m.

Student Lounge

June 24

DAY 2

08:30-10:00

Session 19

ZB 125: Milbank Chapel

Building houses for children

Marta Gutman

The Saloon That Became a School: The West Oakland Free Kindergarten in the 1880s and 1890s

Rachel Rimmel

Boston's Changing Multipurpose Schoolhouses: Education, Citizenship, and Public Safety

Jessica L. Collier

Houses of Labor, Temples of Learning: School Architecture Reform and Harriet Wilson's Our Nig

Chair: Anne-Li Lindgren

Session 20

GDH 177

Sedimenting Childhoods: Politics and Policies of Childhood in Colonial and Postcolonial India and modern Japan

Sarada Balagopalan

Naturalizing Labour: The Colonial State and the "Poor Native Child"

Emma Alexander-Mudaliar

The anticipation of violence: "Experts" and Juvenile Incarceration in Colonial Bombay

Swapna M. Banerjee

Indian Children at the Crossroads: The Colonial Experience and the Cautionary Discourse of Indian Fathers

Kathleen S. Uno

Day Care and Visions of the Child in Three Eras in Twentieth-Century Japan

Chair: Swapna M. Banerjee

Session 21

GDH 179

Writing through the Ages: Generation of Literacies, 1880s-2010s

Cate Sacchi

Reflecting on a Shared Past: College Yearbook Writing, 1880-1900

Julia Voss

Resisting Pedagogical Assumptions about the Digital Literacies of College Freshman

Amy Heath

Authenticity, Adolescence, and Agency: Pedagogical Implications Drawn from an Experience-and Literacy-Rich School

Chair: Harvey J. Graff

Session 22

GDH 277

Difficult Children/Different Children: Perspectives on Gender, Race, Class, Culture, Special Needs, and Educational Disadvantage in America and Brazil

Barbara Beatty

Indexing for Deprivation, Educating for Disadvantage: Race, Class, and Martin and Cynthia Deutsch's Institute for Developmental Studies in Harlem in the 1950s and 1960s

Julia Grant

Boys and the Shaping of Urban Education in the Twentieth -Century United States

Alexandra Cox

Convergence of Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice: A New York Case Study

Chair: Stephen Lassonde

Session 23

GDH 285

Children of the 1970s

Lori Rotskoff

Not Pretty in Pink: Non-Sexist Childrearing, Children's Clothing, and the Politics of Appearance in the 1970s

Laura L. Lovett

Toys That Don't Care: Organizing Around Toys, Equality, and Violence in the 1970s

Megan Elias

Mud Pies and Other Recipes: Cooking Children into the Counterculture

Leslie Paris

Save Our Children: Conservatives and Children's Culture of the 1970s

Chair: Laura Lovett

Session 24

GDH 449

Childhood Without a Home: The Experience of Foster Care in the United States

Catherine E. Rymph

"Lend-Lease Babies:" Refugee Children and American Foster Care during World War II

Ethan G. Sribnick

Foster Care as Therapy

Laura Curan

The Legacy of foster care in United States, 1924-1929

Chair: Sara Wolf Feldman

Session 25

GDH 539

Children and Media: Parental Advice and Child Readers from the Renaissance to 1900

Adriana Benzaguen

The Education of the Clarke Children: Parental Concern, Expert Advice and Children's Agency in Early Modern England

Rosella del Prete

Musical Education and Work: Conservatories as a (?)European Model of Economic Development in the Reign of Naples during the Modern Age

Catherine Cronquist Browning

Reading Children in the Victorian Bildungsroman

Adriane Wadewitz

ABC's of Sensibility. The Literacy of Feeling

Chair: Thom Axelsson

June 24

10.30-12.00

Session 26

ZB 125: Milbank Chapel

Remembering and Forgetting Childhood: The Impact of Nostalgia, Amnesia, and Recasting in Constructing the Domestic Past

Gary Cross

Nostalgia Today: A Distorting Mirror of Childhood

Jim Block

Innocence and the Erasure of the Past: The Cultural Uses of Childhood Amnesia

Jeffrey Hammond

Old Toys and New Play: Collecting as a Disruption of Nostalgia

Chair: James E. Block

Session 27

GDH 177

Colonial Children and The Institution: Processing Subjects, Producing Subjectivities

Corrie Decker

"Too Old" for School?: Redefining Childhood in East African Colonial Girl's Schools

Simon Heap

Processing Children and Reforming Juvenile Delinquents: The Salvation Army's Boys' Industrial Home, Yaba, Lagos, Nigeria, 1920s-1940s

David M. Pomfret

'Sick Traffic': Child Migrants, Imperial Networks and Institutions.

Kathleen Vongsathorn

"Little Britons": Promoting a Civilized Future for Uganda through Child leprosy Patients in Kumi, Uganda, 1930-1951

Chair: Abosede George

Session 28

GDH 179

Educating Children about War from the late 19th Century into the 1960s

Erika Kitzmiller

Imperial Fantasies: Juvenile Literature in the White City

Friederike Kind-Kovács

“What is a (Hungarian) child worth to you?": The Visual Representation of International Child Relief Programs in the Immediate Aftermath of WWI

Matthew H. Hersch

“We Learn to Command”: Munro Leaf and the Postwar American Order

Chair/Discussant: Loren Lerner

Session 29

GDH 277

Constructing Difference in the Spaces of Childhood: How Race, Religion and Gender Defined the Boundaries of North American Childhoods

Deborah S. Valentine

Playing to “Beat the Streets” or Playing for Pleasure?: Constructions of Class and Race on Early 20th Century American Playgrounds

Sarah Adelman

Tailored Childhoods: Class, Race, and Religion in Nineteenth-Century Orphan Asylums

Patrick Cox

The Junior Home Playbook: Play, Gender and Knowing One’s Place for a Rainy Afternoon

Kathryn Bridge

Negotiating Pathways: 19th Century Canadian Boys and Girls at Elite Boarding Schools

Chair: Elizabeth Rose

Discussant: Noah Sobe

Session 30

GDH 285

The Development of Child Psychiatry in the Twentieth Century: Negotiating Institutional Boundaries, Diagnostic Categories and New Visions of Childhood

Annemiek van Drenth

Knowledge and Normalcy: The Discovery of the First Dutch Boy with Autism in the 1930s

Bonnie Evans

The Origins of Childhood Schizophrenia Research in Britain: The Maudsley Hospital 1937-1965

John Stewart

The Medical Mission of British Child Guidance, 1918-1955: Theory and Practice

Karin Zetterqvist Nelson

“Below the Aggressive Surface ...” Swedish Child Psychiatric Case Studies from the 1950s

Chair/Discussant: Ning de Coninck-Smith

Session 31

GDH 449

Children , Slavery, and Emancipation in the Nineteenth-Century United States

Sharon Braslaw Sundue

Child Trafficking in the Wake of Emancipation in Early National Pennsylvania; 1784-1820

Gale L. Kenny

A Racial and Religious Education: Children and the African Colonization Debate in the Antebellum North

Corinne T. Field

“You Will be Free as Soon as You Are Twenty-One”: The Political Significance of Chronological Age in the American Antislavery Movement, 1840-1865

Catherine Jones

Apprenticeship and Family Strategy in Postemancipation Virginia

Chair/Discussant: Anya Jabour

June 24

12:00-02:00

Lunch

Noon – 12:45

Student Lounge

PLENARY PANEL

12:45 – 2 p.m.

ZB 125: Milbank Chapel

Janet Metcalfe, Professor of Psychology and of Neurobiology and Behavior, Columbia University

David Rosner, Professor of History and Co-Director of the Center for the History & Ethics of Public Health at Mailman School of Public Health

Debora Spar, President of Barnard College

June 24

02:00-03:30

Session 32

GDH 177

Children’s Literature, comic books and politics

Marilisa Jimenez

Another Johnny Appleseed: Pura Belpre's Storytelling and Resisting Colonialism

Carol L. Tilley

Batman Did Something with Robin: Frederik Wertham and the Pathologization of Comic Books Readers

Olga Bukhina

The Role of Children’s Books in Identity Acquisition: The Case of Jewish Identity in the Soviet Union

Chair: Laura Lovett

Session 33

GDH 179

Educating the Emotions in Britain, France and Germany, 1880-1970

Heather Ellis

Patriotism, Student Identity and the Language of Emotion at Oxford and Cambridge, 1880-1914

Stephanie Olsen

Temperate Futures: Bands of Hope and Informal Emotional Education for Boys, 1880-1914

Philippe Bongrand

Designing the State Attitude toward Children’s Emotions: Competing Conceptions of Public Schools’ “livret scolaire” (France, 1936-1968)

Juliane Brauer

Music Education in Schools in East and West Germany: Debates and Practices in the Education of Emotions (1949-1968)

Chair/Discussant: Rob Boddice

Session 34

GDH 277

Immigration Law, Public Policy and the Transfer of Children in Transnational Adoption: Children Moving Between the United States, Korean, Ireland and Vietnam

Karen Balcom

US Immigration Policy and Steps Toward Transnational Adoption in the 1940s and 1950s

Arissa Oh

From War Waifs to Ideal Immigrants: Korean Adoption and The Cold War Transformation of American Orphan Law

Moira Maguire

The Jane Russell Scandal and Irish Adoption Law

Rachel Winslow

Children of Controversy: Citizenship and Transnational Policy in the Era of Operation Babylift

Chair: Mona Gleason

Session 35

GDH 449

Educating Children about World War II

Shannon Nagy

War Games and the Struggle for a Patriotic Upbringing: East German Children and Military Toys

Daryl Webb

“The Future of Youth is Bound Up with Democracy”: Depression, World War II and the Changing Definition of Youth Citizenship

Matchteld Venken

Children from East Prussia and War Education: The Early Postwar Period at the Border in the Polish People’s Republic

Orion A. Teal

“Ain’t Gonna Study War No More”: Children’s Anti-War Visual and Material Culture during the Early Cold War

Robert Goldberg

“A Boy is a Boy”: Gender, Citizenship, and the Battle over War Toys in the United States, 1963-1968

Chair: Loren Lerner

Session 36

GDH 285

Perspectives on the politics of apology

Karen-Sofie Pettersen

Recognition and rejection - appraising childhood in the Norwegian welfare state

Shurlee Swain

The Politics of Apology: An Australian Genealogy

Malin Arvidsson

“A dark chapter in our history”: Historical Truth Commissions on Abuse in Children’s Institutions as National Memory Politics

Maria Rytter

The First Danish Inquiry into Child Abuse in Institutions in International Perspective

Chair: Ingrid Söderlind

Session 37

GDH 539

A Transnational Age: Institutions, Borderlines, and Boundary Crossings

Elena Jackson Albarràn

The Boy Scouts and Junior Red Cross under the Aztec Sun: Mexican Youth Export Nationalism through International Organizations, 1920-1940

Henry Choi Sze Hang

Be National in order to be International? The Construction of Nationalist Youth in the Chinese Boy Scouts Program (1912-1937)

Gabriel N. Rosenberg

4-H Goes to Saigon: International 4-H, Rural Modernization, and Global Cold War

Chair: David M. Pomfret

Discussant: Andrew Donson

June 24

04:00-05:30

Session 38

GDH 177

Museums and the Representation of Children's History

Lynette Townsend

To What Extent have Museum Collections Captured the History of Childhood and the Child's Perspective in History?

Tory Swim Inloes

One Size Fits All? The Representation of Children's History in California Museums

Karen Dubinsky

Symbolic Children in the Iconography of Twentieth Century Social Movements: A Genealogy of the Poster Child

Chair: Mona Gleason

Session 39

GDH 179

Guns, and Play: Institutionalized Children's Agency

Melanie Schultze-Tanielian

Cities of Orphans: The Orphan Child as Historical Agent in Post-WWI Greater Syria

Jennifer Robin Terry

Alternative Reality: Interned Children's Wartime World

Suan Rakosi Rosenblom

Child Soldiers in Historical Contexts: Agency in Retreat

Chair: William S. Bush

Discussant: Clementine Fujimura

Session 40

GDH 277

Disability, Disorder, and the (Gendered) State of Postwar Children and Youth

Claudia Malacrida

Not Dependent, Exploited: Children with "Mental Deficiency" in Alberta, 1950s-1970s

Josh Cole

Splintered off from the Rest of the Gang? : The Hall-Dennis Report, Neo-Progressivism, and the Differently-abled in 1960s Ontario

Anika Stafford and Mona Gleason

Summer Camp Special Services: Psychiatric Monitoring of Gender Nonconforming Children and their Families in Postwar Vancouver

Abbye Meyer

'But she's not retarded': Contemporary adolescent literature normalizes (physical) disability while further marginalizing intellectual disability

Chair: Dewar MacLeod

Session 41

ZB 125: Milbank Chapel

Child Welfare and State Power in Modern America

Anya Jabour

The Child in the City: Sophonisba Breckinridge and Child Welfare in Twentieth-Century Chicago

Molly Ladd-Taylor

Child Welfare, Eugenics, and the Administrative State: The 1917 Minnesota Child Welfare Commission's Ambiguous Legacy

Alyssa Honnette

A Modern Approach to Female Juvenile Delinquency: Dr. Carrie Weaver Smith and the Battle over Child Welfare in Texas, 1915-1925

Chair: Kriste Lindenmeyer

Discussant: Anne Meis Knupfer

Session 42

GDH 285

Gender and Education in Multiple National Contexts

Jennifer Sovde

From the Theater of Education to the Théâtre du Petit Monde: Children, Education, and Theater in France

Margot Hillel

"We are not so much individuals as members of one big family": Australian School Stories for Girls

Stephanie Spencer and Nancy Rosoff

"I keep wondering what school will be like": The Depiction of Early Schooldays in British and American School Stories

Chair: Margaret Marsh

Session 43

GDH 449

Lessons Learned from Inquiries into Child Abuse and Neglect in Institutions and Out-of-home Care

Johanna Sköld

The History of Abused and Neglected Children in Out-of-home-care : Is a Comparison between National Inquiries Possible?

Kjersti Ericsson

From Investigation to Research ?

Nell Musgrove

History and Healing: The Challenges of Writing a History of Children in Out-of-home- 'care'

Liselot de Wilde and Bruno Vanobbergen

From Stories to Histories: Disturbing Voices from the Ghent Orphan Houses (1945-1984)

Carol Brennan

When Apology is Not Enough: Ireland's Ryan

Chair: Shurlee Swain

Session 44

GDH 539

Consumer Culture – Youth and Cultures

Jacquelyn Baker-Sennett

Sector-Bending and Children: Participation in Girl Scout Cookies Sales 1917-2011

Mark Jones

Child Experts in the Marketplace in Early 20th Century Japan

Sarah A. Lichtman

“What’s the Story Morning Glory?” Youth, Gender, and Telephone Culture in Postwar America

Chair: Karen Sánchez-Eppler

June 24

5.45-6:30

SHCY Business Meeting

5.45-6.30

ZB 125: Milbank Chapel

RECEPTION at Barnard College

6.30 – 8.00

Event Oval, Diana Center, Lower Level Barnard College

June 25 DAY 3

08:30-10:00

Session 45

GDH 177

Redefining Childhood in the Transition from Pre-state Israel to Statehood

Yael Darr

Controlling Grass Roots: The Battle over Authority in Hebrew Children’s Culture during the Transition from Pre-state Israel to Statehood

Rima Shikhmanter

Children as “Political Beings”: Political Demands in Key Periodicals for Israeli-Jewish children during the 1940’-1950’.

Chair: Yael Darr

Session 46

GDH 179

Vicarious Consumption for Children: Practices and Meanings

Rebecca Friedman

Representations of Childhood in Fin de siècle Russian Lifestyle magazines

Rebecca Perry

Girlies and Grannies: The Influence of Kate Greenway on Historical Styles of Girls’ Dress in Late Nineteenth-Century Great Britain

Clare Rose

“Those big, moving dolls which mothers amuse themselves in dressing”: Children and Fashion Consumption in Britain, c. 1870-1920

Heidi MacDonald

Consumption as a Pathway to Adulthood in 1930s Canada

Chair: Clare Rose

Session 47

GDH 277

Representations of History for Children and Youth

Emily Bruce

Heroic Women in Historical Narratives for Children: German Periodicals and Textbooks, 1770-1850

Minjie Chen

Storying Japanese War Crimes for Chinese Young Readers

Mehmet Kentel

Histories and Geographies on Board: The Board Games of John Wallis

Lynne McKechinie

There Are No Happy Endings: Representations of Children in Holocaust Memorials and Museums and Holocaust-themed Children's Literature

Chair/Discussant: Sarah Anne Moira

June 25

10:30-12:00

Session 48

GDH 177

Sexual revolutions and intergenerational sexuality in history

Julie Solow Stein

Are you ready for Marriage? High School Marriages, Youth and Autonomy in Postwar America

Moira Hinderer

Homefront Youth in Revolt: Black Youth in World War II Era Chicago

Jan Price Greenough

Boys in the Navy: or Did Patrick O'Brien Have it Right?

Jennifer Thorn

Sex, Progress and the Navy: Boys and Men in Eighteenth-Century Naval Courts and Children's Literature

Chair: Margot Hillel

Session 49

GDH 179

Critical Perspectives and the History of Childhood

Jonas Qvarsebo

To what Extent Is "Critique" within Critical Childhood Studies Tied to a Logic Revolution

Pär Widen

Is History from Below by Necessity a Critical Approach?

Patrick Ryan

How Should We Conceptualize the Tension between the History of Children (as Persons and Groups) and the History of Childhood (as a Discourse of the Self)?

Thom Axelsson

In the cross-fire between political and pastoral power – Is there a need for new ways of theorizing power and childhood?

Chair: Patrick Ryan

Session 50

GDH 277

Children, Youth and Traumatic Experiences

Janet Borland

Children of Catastrophe: The Documentation and Use of Children's Experiences of the 1923 Great Kanto Earthquake

J. Charles Schencking

Youth and the Vulnerable in the Reconstruction Plans for New Tokyo

Lily Chang

Juvenile Offenders in Wartime China

Chair: Janet Borland / J. Charles Schencking

Session 51

GDH 285

Children in a World at War: Transnational perspectives of WWI

Kristine Alexander

“My Dad is at the Front”: Uniting and Dividing Canadian Children during the First World War

Carolyn Kay

War Stories For Kinder: Children’s Books In Germany During World War One

Manon Pignot

The impact of war on French children : an intimate history of mobilization, family life and mourning

Anne Reilly

“Little Americans, Do Your Bit”: The Transformation of Children into Citizens through Service and Consumption during World War I

Chair: Susan A. Miller

Session 52

GDH 449

Doubled Relations to the Past: Ideas of Childhood and of History

Sarah Chinn

“I Was a Lesbian Child”: Queer Thoughts about Childhood Studies

Rachel Conrad

“That clock is ticking/Me away!”: Children, Time, and the Present

Karen Sánchez-Eppler

“Knowledge is Power”: Imagining Childhood in the Archives

Martha Saxton

Mary Ball: Trying to Understand a Colonial Childhood

Chair: Karen Sánchez-Eppler

June 25

12:00–02:00

Lunch

Noon – 12:45 p.m.

Student Lounge

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS

12:45 – 2 p.m.

ZB 125: Milbank Chapel

June 25

02:00–03:30

Session 53

GDH 177

Transnational histories of childhood and youth

Daminano Matasci

French School Reforms in Transnational Perspective (1870-1914)

Bjørnar Mortensen Vik

Psychology Translated: Dominant Psychological Conceptions in Norwegian Child Rearing Literature 1945-1960

Maria V. Zolotukhina:

A Soviet Childhood in a Non-Soviet Environment: Growing up in Diplomatic Communities

Chair: Sarada Balagopalan

Session 54

GDH 179

Child Marriage and the Construction of Childhood in an International Context

Johanna Rickman

“He would never consent in his hart”: Conflicts in Child Marriages in Early Modern English

Nicholas L. Syrett

Contesting Childhood: Children, Sexuality, and Marriage Law in the United States, 1850-1920

Ishita Pande

Rethinking the child-wife: Unlawful intercourse and the politics of childhood in colonial India

Angela Melchiorre

The “Right” Balance: The Minimum Age for Marriage and the Convention on the Rights of the Child

Chair/Discussant: Kristin Celeslo

Session 55

GDH 449

International Perspectives on Childhood and War in the Twentieth Century

Justin Nordstrom

“Little Americans, Do Your Bit”: The U.S. Food Administration and American Childhood, 1917-1919

Yvette Florio Lane

“Feeding the Children of the Enemy”: Commodification of Youth in Philanthropic Fundraising, Britain, 1919-1924

Lizabeth H. Piel

Food Rationing and Children’s self-reliance in Japan, 1942-1952

Charissa Keup

“It Could Be Your Daughter”: The Young Unwed Mother in WWII Chicago

Donna Alvah

American Responses to the International Year of the Child: Children’s Issues in the Context of the Cold War

Chair: Joseph Hawes/ David Rosen

Session 56

GDH 277

Creating Religious Childhoods: Intersections of Religious and Social Change in the Lives of Children and Youth

Angela Rooke: “

Making the Church-Conscious” and “Making the Child Church-Conscious”: Babies to “Beginners” in Canada’s Protestant Churches, 1900-1935

James Trepanier

A “Religion of the Backwoods”: Religion and the Canadian Boy Scout Movement in the Interwar Period

Gayle V. Fischer

Saving Children from the Catholic Menace – Religiously-Barbed Nuns Teaching in Public Schools, 1876-1950

David Greenspoon

Rewarding Piety: Sunday School Prizes and Juvenile Consumption in Nineteenth Century America

Chair: Hugh Morrison

Session 57

GDH 285

Youth in Action: The Role of Death Commemoration. Violence, Family and Tradition in Young People's Protests in the United States, Guatemala, and South Africa

Susan Eckelmann

Youth, Media, and Conceptions of Democracy during the Black Freedom Struggle, 1963–1965.

Heather Vrana

How to Rule Unruly Subjects: Student Death Commemoration in Guatemala's Urban Space, 1977 to the Present

Leslie Hadfield

Challenging the Status Quo and Valuing Tradition – Black Consciousness Movement Youth in Rural South African Villages in the 1970s

Chair: Rebecca de Schweinitz

Discussant: Nara Milanich

June 25

04:00–05:30

Session 58

GDH 177

The Rights of the Child, Agency, and International conventions

Sheridy Leslie

The Youth Revolution: Movements Towards Social Change

Zoe Moody

The Convention on the Rights of the Child in History: The Turning Point of an International Children's Rights Regime?

Chair: Nara Milanich

Session 59

GDH 179

The Presence of the Past: Case Studies in Child and Family Health Policy

Meghan Crnic

Marine Medication for Indigent Urban Children, 1870-1930

James Colgrove

Making Martyrs of their Children? Battles over Exemptions from School Immunization Laws

Jessica Martucci

Don't Poison Your Baby: Environmental Contamination and the Breast-feeding Debate

Michael Yudell

Ages of Uncertainty: Autism Spectrum Disorders and the Search for Cause and Cure

Chair: Cindy Connolly

Session 60

GDH 277

Birth Mothers, Children, Adoption, and the Stigma of Illegitimacy: Historical Perspectives from the 1950s to the Present

Elizabeth Samuels

The Image of the Child Through the Lens of Adoption: From "Blank Slate" to Complex Identity, 1950 to the Present.

E. Wayne Carp

Jean Paton and Madeline Murray O'Hare: The Power of the Stigma of Illegitimacy in the 1950s

Ann Fessler

"A Girl Like Her:" Voices of Surrendering Mothers from the 1950s and 60s

Chair/Discussant: Ellen Herman

Session 61

GDH 285

A Transnational Age: Transnational Protest and Youth Political Agency

Fabio Lanza

Springtime and Morning Suns: "Youth" as a Political Category in Twentieth-Century China

Andrew Ivaska

At Home in Exile: Dar es Salaam's Transnational Activist Science and the Politics of Youth, 1960s-1970s

Ian Milligan

Youth Revolt: Class and Radicalism in English Canada's Baby Boom Generation

Chair: Richard Ivan Jobs

Session 62

GDH 449

Tools that Measure, Model and Mold the Child

Mirian Jorge Warde

Molding Girls and Boys in 20th-Century Brazil

Noah W. Sobe

Measuring and Conjuring the Child's Attention Span in the United States in the 20th Century

Nicole Ortegon

Toward the "Better than Well" Individual and Society: Changing Measures of "Illness" and "Wellness" and their Influence on Children and Childhood.

Chair/Discussant: Nancy Lesko

